Parent Love

B) Rafeef mom

Lots of fun in the class today 😊.. long time didnt see my child cheer up like that 😊 thank you ma'am to give our children your best

B) Keerthi Boppana (Hanvit...)

Ma'am, why don't you take class daily. Kids are really enjoying. My daughter keeps waiting for the class 😊

Due this pandemic situation . she is not going out from one month so happy to see kids smiling like that.

By the way, I am very happy with the teachers at Bambinos. They take personal effort in every individual child's development. And the course contents are very well-designed. 🙌 Please thank the team on my behalf.

You know he has always been a tough child..and Zoro and me have watched taare zameen par movie..somehow I use to feel Zoro could relate to that movie and I always use to tell him one day I willl find you Aamir Khan type teacher ...because I have always been teaching him and have almost no patience..kept changing teachers for him but didn't work...but with you it's just miracle that's happening...thank you so much

Simran Kathuria

A training specialist with many years of individual and group training experience, Simran is an excellent educator. Well-versed with language skills, she also exhibits immense knowledge in the field of Bhagwat Gita and can explain high-level Sanskrit verses with utmost ease.

Shikhar Kumar

Shikhar Kumar holds a law degree and is highly passionate about Indian culture. He has organizations like CRY and others to his credit. He understands the need of educating children about Indian culture and religion in the most exciting way, thereby making kids learn and build the proper habits. It is this thought that led him to become a Bhagavad Gita trainer. He wants young kids to follow the path of knowledge and wisdom and adopt an honest lifestyle. Shikhar wants to teach them the moral lessons from Gita and encourage them to follow these in their life. Your child will surely love his classes and learn some of the most valuable life lessons from him.

Neha Sharma

Neha Sharma is a trained educator with many years of experience. She has been a primary school coordinator and has worked on promoting developmental skills for her students. She has also worked on curriculum design for primary school students. Her passion for a healthy and pure lifestyle led her to follow the preachings of the Bhagavad Gita. She wants young kids to follow the same path and intends to teach the essence of Bhagavad Gita to her students. Her classes are full of energy, and she uses modern anecdotes to explain the complex Sanskrit verses in a simple manner. She teaches the verses and shlokas with proper pronunciation and tone. Her classes include a mix of practices and theories that keep the students engaged in learning.
